

Reflective Neck Gaiter

PP417

Features

- Adjustable Drawstring Design: Equipped with a durable adjustable cord for a custom, snug all-day comfort—free from tightness or slippage
- Breathable & Lightweight Fabric: Crafted from premium lightweight and breathable material that promotes air circulation, wicks away moisture, and prevents stuffiness, ideal for prolonged wear in various environments alike
- Versatile Usage: Can be worn as a neck gaiter, face covering, or headband—suitable for construction workers, cyclists, hikers, and other outdoor enthusiasts

This Bison Life Adjustable 2-Layer Neck Gaiter in Green features lightweight, moisture-wicking fabric that keeps the wearer drier, cooler, and more comfortable by moving moisture away from the skin for quick evaporation. It resists odor, damaging UV radiation, wind, sun, and dust, making it ideal for various demanding applications. The adjustable cord allows for a customizable and comfortable fit, enhancing its practicality for construction, landscaping, transportation, and other industries.
